Software Developer (C++)

Tbilisi, Georgia / Sofia, Bulgaria

Permanent

Full time 40 hours

Job title: Software Developer (C+)

Location: Sofia, Bulgaria or Tbilisi, Georgia

Overview of the role:

We have an exciting new role in our development team for someone who is passionate about C++ and Python, eager to learn, and enjoys tackling complex challenges. You'll be working closely with a supportive team on a key project, where collaboration and continuous learning are at the heart of what we do.

This role follows a hybrid approach to working, allowing you to combine working from home with working in our modern offices. These discussions are between you and your manager to find the best pattern for you both, while recognising that quality time together is essential for keeping us mission-aligned.

What you'll do:

In this role, you'll be responsible for:

- Developing and optimizing high-performance systems using C++ and Python.
- Collaborating with a cross-functional team to deliver key features and improvements.
- Learning and working with AWS and Kafka to enhance the project's capabilities (we'll teach you if needed).
- Writing clean, efficient, and maintainable code.
- Participating in code reviews to ensure standard methodologies are followed.
- Debugging and troubleshooting issues as they arise.
- Communicating progress and challenges effectively with your team.
- Working in a flexible, hybrid environment, where teamwork and continuous improvement are valued.

What you'll bring:

- Solid ex

- Strong communication skills and the ability to collaborate within a team.
- A proactive approach to identifying and fixing issues.
- Enthusiasm for contributing to high-impact projects in a dynamic environment.
- A strong interest in poker, with familiarity or curiosity about Game Theory Optimal (GTO) strategies.
- A desire to grow professionally and take on new challenges.
- B.Sc. or better in Computer Science or equivalent

Nice to have (but not required):

- Experience with AWS, Kafka, JavaScript, or Django.
- Familiarity with cloud computing and distributed systems.

It's ok if you don't think you tick every box on this list. We love people who want to challenge themselves and are passionate about what they do. If you believe you can contribute in some areas and are eager to learn, we encourage you to apply.

Why choose us:

Aside from a generous base salary, we have a fantastic benefits & rewards program that is designed to encourage personal and career development.

- Discretionary annual performance bonus
- 30 days paid leave
- Health and Dental Insurance for you, your partner and your children (if you all live at the same address)
- Personal life insurance and disability coverage
- A personal interest allowance to let you learn something new or pursue a hobby
- External learning support of up to £2,000 or equivalent in local currency, dedicated 4 learning "Power Hours" every month during office time, full access to the Udemy and Mindtools platforms, in-house leadership program and many other training opportunities for developing your skills and progressing your career
- 26 weeks primary carer leave at 100% pay & 4 weeks secondary carer leave pay at 100% pay
- Discounts as a compliment from us among different services
